Hi David, et al.- As Michelle noted, there is a meeting on Bristol Bay Thursday at 12:30 currently on your schedule. OGC has its quarterly meeting over at DOJ tomorrow and all of our SES-level folks were planning to be over at DOJ until 12:30. I think Michelle worked to set it up tomorrow based in part of my advice on the feedback I received from you and wanting to brief folks early enough before the next court deadline as to allow for some thought and direction as opposed to feeling under the deadline. Having said that, I do not see a significant difference between Thursday and Friday or early next week on that score. In light of OGC's scheduling challenge, would it be ok for us to work with Michelle and your scheduler to find a time between tomorrow afternoon and next Tuesday for this meeting?

Thanks, Kevin
